

Seymour B. Everett, III, Esq - Bio

Seymour “Sy” Everett, III is a founding partner of Everett Dorey, LLP. A full-service civil litigation “defense” firm. Mr. Everett is a leading litigator in California and is routinely retained as trial counsel in complex and challenging cases throughout the state. He represents corporations, non-profits, cities, public agencies, special districts, school districts, police officers and individuals in all aspects of litigation. Cases include catastrophic injuries, asbestos, toxic tort, habitability, mold, general liability, wildland fires, business interference, environmental and administrative compliance. Mr. Everett is an elected member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (“ABOTA”), a highly respected national advocacy group dedicated to the preservation of the right to trial by jury. He serves as National Counsel for a major product manufacturer and supplier. He is also recognized as a “Super Lawyer”, which is an exclusive list, recognizing no more than 5% of the attorneys in the state. Mr. Everett also holds the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriting (CPCU) designation and is a regular speaker at legal seminars for fortune 500 Companies, Public Entities and Insurance Carriers and is a former adjunct professor at USC School of Law. He is admitted to practice in all courts in California, including United States Federal District Courts. Mr. Everett has argued before numerous Appellate Courts in the State of California and has multiple published decisions. He obtained his undergraduate degree from UCLA and his law degree from Seton Hall University School of Law. severett@everettdorey.com