

Stephanie L. Millea is a Partner with Kahana & Feld. Ms. Millea's practice focuses largely on the defense of corporate entities and individuals in the context of litigated and pre-litigation claims involving construction matters, real property disputes, business disputes and general liability cases, among others. Ms. Millea has significant experience in insurance defense and representation of general contractors in California complex construction defect cases, often involving a dozen or more parties.