

Dan Shoham

Private Investigator, Onyx Investigations

Retired from California state law enforcement with 25 years of investigative experience, including over 18 years as a Detective in the California Department of Insurance Fraud Division investigating organized insurance fraud activity and related crimes. Previously, a Criminal Investigator for over 6 years in the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, investigating violations of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, vice, narcotics and related laws and regulations.

A licensed California Private Investigator, handling SIU reviews, assessments and law enforcement referrals of suspected fraudulent claims for insurers.