

Biography of Timothy Staab

Tim Staab is a court-qualified and accredited Traffic Collision Reconstructionist. He is a retired Police Chief, having served 32 years as a police officer with the City of Glendora. His company, Delta Analysis, has been serving the insurance community since 1994.

Tim has investigated and reconstructed thousands of traffic collisions, and has conducted crash research and vehicle crash tests. He has been involved in vehicle event data recorder (EDR) technology for the past 21 years. He is a published author and frequent lecturer to law enforcement and insurance professionals.